

Fact Sheet: Lazuli III – L'Orient

Sailing from October 2008

LAZULI: the name of the Dahabieh comes from the precious stone - the lapis Lazuli.

Working by Solar Energy for Electricity & Water

12-guests capacity
5- Nights itinerary: Sunday to Friday
Esna – Aswan

Facilities and Services

- Upper Deck – Table, chairs for lunch and misting fans
- Lounge – Low tables and booths, library, internet access - Wifi
- Laundry services
- Private Egyptologist guide on board
- Motor boat assistance in case of low wind
- Egyptian traditional cuisine
- Mineral Water, tea, coffee, hibiscus & soft drinks, espresso coffee
- Alcoholic drinks, fresh juice & Nespresso coffee excluded.

Exclusive features & facilities

- 4 standard cabins with shared balcony. (2 twin cabins + 2 large bed cabins)
- 2 suites (large bed) with a shared balcony
- All cabins feature bathrooms with showers and hair dryer

Safety and Security Measures

- Water purification: According to Egyptian Ministry of Health regulations, water is fully purified
- 2 life jackets in each cabin
- Safety box in each cabin
- Fire Detectors

Technical Data

- Length: 38.5m Width: 7 m
- 2 Decks

